

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

17 May 1974

Major General George J. Keegan, Jr., USAF
Assistant Chief of Staff/Intelligence
Department of the Air Force
Headquarters United States Air Force
Washington, D.C. 20330

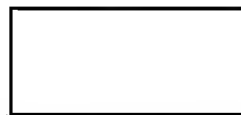

Dear George:

Many thanks indeed for sending me the second and third volumes in your translation series "Soviet Military Thought." Both of them will make interesting reading, as did the first in this excellent series. I am particularly looking forward to sitting down with suitable background music and nearby refreshment to concentrate on the Soviet perception of Marxism-Leninism as it relates to war and to the Army.

As I think I have told you, and others far more knowledgeable than I in Soviet affairs have doubtless commented, the Air Force is rendering a real service in making this series available through its translation and publication efforts. Would you please convey my thanks and commendation to the individuals directly involved with doing the work, which must be considerable.

With best regards.

Sincerely yours,

George A. Carver, Jr.
Deputy for National Intelligence Officers
